EDITORIAL.

We ask the special attention of the readers of this Annual to the advertising which appears in its pages. We have been very careful to solicit only such advertisements as are perfectly reliable, and no one need hesitate to deal with any individual or firm whose business is represented here. Many of these advertisers have taken space with us in order to help an enterprise of the church as much as to secure attention to their businesses. Other things being equal, we should favor those who favor us. When you want anything that is advertised in these pages, we shall take it as a special favor if you will consider the claims of these good friends. When writing to them, or when you visit them, mention the fact that you saw their "ad" in the Kentucky Conference Annual.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

KENTUCKY ANNUAL CONFERENCE AT LONDON,
KY., SEPT. 8, 1902.

We would respectfully call attention in this connection to the Central Methodist, published in our own State and addressing itself to phases of our culture and necessities of our Church life considered by no other paper. We need an organ more specific and local than any General Conference enterprise can afford to be. We have our Conference Institutions to maintain and enterprises of reform and evangelization to advance. Our quarterly conferences must be announced and revivals reported, our congregational successes acknowledged and our young writers encouraged. Our people need these stimuli, together with that which proceeds from personal knowledge of the preachers and lay members, of the events and occasions discussed to secure a patronage for the paper. We have such a paper under editorial management of an intelligent and capable layman long connected with our Kentucky Wesleyan College, and under the business management of a popular and successful layman of the Louisville Conference, but it needs the hearty and united support of both Conferences to make it the success it should be. This paper we have every assurance will exclude all discussions that produce discord and will indulge in no hateful personalities.

Resolved, That we will adopt the Central Methodist as the organ of our Conference and will do our utmost to introduce it into all our families.

On motion the report was adopted

Have You a Child?

THEN YOU ARE INTERESTED IN EDUCATION.

Do you know that you can find no better education than in your own

Conference College?

The Course of Study is broad and the instruction is thorough. The equipment is modern and extensive. Some of the best scholars of the day got their College training at the

Kentucky Wesleyan

That is true of Dean W. D. McClintock, of the University of Chicago, and of Prof. O. F. Long, Ph.D. of Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill. What was done for them, can be done for your child.

About the cost? $150 will put a young man through the year. Some go on less.

SPECIAL COURSE FOR PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS

Opens January 21st, 1903. Ambitious teachers will find this just what they need. $60 will give that Course to young men and $75 to young ladies. Write for information to President John L. Weber, D.D., Litt. D.,

Resolved, 2, That the statistical secretary be instructed to open a column in which he shall enter the estimated value of parsonage rentals, and that this column be inserted in his report so as to give each charge having a parsonage due credit for the use of the same.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Report of K. W. C. Board.

We have cause to be grateful for the result of the work done by our College during the past year. In every department of our work we have seen signs of renewed vigor. We are to be congratulated on being able to retain in the presidency, Rev. John L. Weber, D. D., who has found a large place in the hearts of our people, and whose able administration is every day adding new friends to our College and to the cause of Christian education throughout the entire Conference. The times demand that we should give our sons and daughters the very best equipment for life. This can be done only in those institutions that are under the fostering care of the Church. We should educate our children in our own institutions. Our people should realize that only as they rally to our own institutions, and by their generous support make them the equals of the best, can we expect our people to patronize them. The College is our institution. We should support it not simply for our vows' sake, but because we are deeply interested in building up a great Conference School to educate our laymen and our ministry, and fit them for the largest usefulness in life. Our future as a denomination in the State demands it. Our school has opened up with increased attendance this year.

We have reason to congratulate ourselves in our completed and fully furnished dormitory known as the Thomas L. Clark Hall. This enables young men of limited means to secure an education at small cost. We would commend the example of Gov. Clark to all our people who are seeking to put their money where it will bring forth the largest harvest of good in the years to come.

Our Twentieth Century Movement has resulted in much good to the educational work of the Church, but we regret that it did not bring larger returns. We would report a total subscription of $18,324.11, with $15,227.41 received on the same, leaving unpaid $3,096.70. We trust the delinquent subscribers will realize the importance of an early discharge of their obligation.

Report of Conference Board.

The Board of Education respectfully request the appointment of J. W. Hughes to the presidency of Asbury College; C. C. Fisher to the presidency of Millersburg Female College; E. G. B. Mann, Conference Secretary of Education.

We recognize the importance of our great University at Nashville. We would urge our people to a loyal support of this institution, and recommend that our young men preparing themselves for the ministry avail themselves of the opportunity for doing so, by attendance upon the University.

The Payne and Lane Institutes are worthy of a place in our thought and benevolences as being of vital importance in the education and elevation of our colored people. We recommend an assessment upon our Conference of $339 for Payne and Lane Institutes, and of $3,000 for education.

We are gratified at the establishment of our Correspondence School at Nashville, and would urge upon our young men the great value of this school and the importance of availing themselves of the aid thus afforded them in prosecuting their studies.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The Fifty-sixth Annual Report of the Parent Board of Missions gives encouraging statements as to the growth and condition of our work in the six foreign fields. The native membership is 11,631, with 156 missionaries (including those of Woman's Board, 220), and 102 native preachers. A growing constituency and equipment put us in line with the best organized missions on the foreign field.

The prospects of our educational work in the Chinese Empire, the great revival that has swept over Japan, open doors in Korea, the steady growth of the work in Mexico, the fervent evangelistic spirit and liberality of the Church in Brazil, the readiness of Cuba to receive the truth as it is in Christ Jesus, and the great openings of the South-west, all call the Church to more enthusiastic effort and to greater liberality.

The increase in contributions during the past quadrennium is a matter of no small significance; the aggregate from all sources being $1,232,237. The increase in the past year's collections has been $21,588. We hope at no distant day to see all the Annual Conferences, as some are now doing, pay their assessments in full.

The Kentucky Conference, during the past several years, has taken a forward step. We expect to stand in line with the conferences that are in the lead in their efforts to carry forward our mission enterprises. Our mid-year meetings, District Conferences, circuit and station mass-meetings, increased collections and circulation of literature are encouraging marks of great advancement.

In our home field we have a membership of 4,862, an increase of 386 during the year, 70 Sunday schools, and 3,532 schools, and church property valued at $9,205. Support for preachers was, during the year, $5,773.25. We regret to note a decrease of $241.23 in the amount collected for missions. New churches are being built, and all the London District is being more thoroughly organized.

We are pleased to have with us during the session of this Conference Rev. Dr. Seth Ward, one of the Secretaries of the Parent Board; also our own Dr. C. F. Reid, at present Superintendent of the Korean work; and Bro. S. E. Hager, who went from us to the Japan mission.

While we reluctantly give up Bro. Willard G. Cram and wife, who are so much in demand in our Conference, we are nevertheless grateful that they are called to the Korean field. We pledge to them our prayers and aid in their support.

There has never been a time in the history of the Church when the circulation of our literature seemed so important. Let the "Review of Missions," "Go Forward," and all missionary literature be freely circulated.

We shall co-operate with and aid in every possible way our women of the Foreign and Home Societies in their work.

We urge every pastor to take early collections, hold mass-meetings, and preach frequently on the subject of missions.

The Board has appointed E. S. Fogg Field Worker for the present year.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. Julius Edwin Wright as Conference Secretary of Missions.

D. B. COOPER, Chairman.

Woman's Foreign Mission Society.

Although the W. F. M. The Sue Bennett Memorial School reports encouraging progress during the year. Some needed repairs were made the past summer under the supervision of Rev. F. T. McIntire, to whom we are greatly indebted for this valuable service, in the absence of our Superintendent, Miss Bennett.

In the general work, there is an increase of 4,000 members, and more money collected than last year, an increase of $2,000.

The Home Mission work is widening and prospering every day, and the records tell that the past year has been one of success and prosperity.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

During the past few years the receipts for this department of our Church show a gratifying increase. And this is as it should be. More and more does the wisdom of the Church become manifest in the creation of this branch of our Methodism.

Especial attention is directed to the new annex to this section of our organization. We mean to say, the Insurance feature, whereby our church houses and parsonages may be protected against losses by fire. We shall insist that all churches to whom we grant donations shall be insured in this company. The rate is about one-half of the rate charged by "old line" companies, and the security as perfect. The name of this company is the National Mutual Church Insurance Company. Wilbur F. Barclay, Secretary of the Board of Insurance, Louisville, Ky., will send full particulars to our preachers and boards of trustees.

To prevent the possibility of funds remaining in the hands of the Treasurer of the Board for an undue length of time, the rule, lapsing all donations not called for during the year following the grant, will be rigidly enforced.

No grant will be paid to any church until this Board is satisfied after personal examination of said claim by a member of this Board. We can not be too careful in the distribution of these sacred funds placed at our disposal.

The following grants have been allowed, subject to conditions above named:

Greenwood, Pulaski county, Ky.	$100 00
Mt. Pleasant, Harrison county, Ky.	150 00
Gestville, Henry county, Ky.	150 00
Corbin, Whitley county, Ky.	100 00
Caney, Morgan county, Ky.	100 00
Taylorsport, Boone county, Ky.	75 00
Middlesboro, Bell county, Ky.	250 00
Total	$925 00

REPORT, OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

We believe that Methodism is planning to enlarge the opportunities of the Sunday-school interest, both as to teacher and pupil. It is playing its part in recruiting the hosts of Israel and in the evangelization of the world for Christ. One of the distinguishing characteristics of the present time is an all-consuming desire to send into the ripened harvest fields laborers equipped and qualified to win the world to Christ. To this end we would recommend to the incoming Board the necessity of so organizing as to see that every school is made a missionary school, and every child is taught that he or she should contribute something to save the world.

We are glad to report that our Board has done some good work this year in the way of organizing new schools, and in helping others already in existence. We still have money left, which we turn into the proper channels of the Church. We close the quadrennium with many reasons for gratitude, and pray the co-operation of the Church and the blessing of God to be with us in the future.

REPORT OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

Your Epworth League Board respectfully submits the following report: As there is brought into view something of the great work achieved by the League in the past, its present strength and equipment for service, and the opportunity presented by the field of her labor, we are fully convinced that the General Conference which brought about its organization was directed by the unseen hand of the great Head of the Church. We invite your attention to the excellent helps provided by our efficient General Secretary, H. M. Dubose, D. D., in the form of programs for devotional and missionary meetings, published in The Era and the League Course of study.

The League is remarkably successful in raising the deficits on the benevolent collections, thus enabling districts and even conferences to pay in full, and we believe that this conference should be more fully enlisted in its work. During the past year we held a most delightful and successful conference at Mt. Sterling, Ky., and we would respectfully suggest that we carry out their resolution which reads as follows:

"RESOLVED, That we request the Epworth League Board of the Kentucky Annual Conference to arrange a program for next year's meeting, which is invited to be held at Millersburg, Ky."

RESOLVED, That we carry out the request of Bishop Morrison to organize an Epworth League in every church where it is possible.

Respectfully,

C. F. ONEY, Chairman.

B. E. LANCASTER, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee, to whom have been referred communications from the Publishing House and the Vanderbilt University at Nashville would respectfully report that they have had these matters under careful consideration.

It is with pleasure we note the advance in sales and profits, and the healthy financial condition of our Publishing House. An increase of assets amounting to $30,799.69 after paying losses by the Review, and the Epworth Era and League department, and a working capital of $926,094.53 are matters for self-felicitation and of gratitude. It is due our Agents that special attention should be called to the good taste and superior workmanship which characterize all the products of our establishment and which justify the success of the past and former years.

The Review edited by Dr. J. J. Tigert fills an important place in our church work, and though his service has been greatly needed and inadequately appreciated, yet his work has been invaluable to the ministry and membership of our church, and has given us a better understanding of the literary development of our Southland. Every traveling preacher should, from many considerations, avail himself of its pages.

The Sunday-school Periodicals under the editorship of Dr. James Atkins, continue to maintain their high tone of scholarship, adaptation and utility, and should be faithfully used by all of our Sunday-schools. The publications under auspices of our Missionary Board, meet the demands of the age and hour. Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the Review of Missions, edited by our Missionary Secretaries. No Methodist Preacher's library is complete without it, nor is he furnished for his pulpit or pastoral work without its study.

The Correspondence School inaugurated by our last General Conference proposes by the use of printed lesson sheets, used in individual correspondence with large and widely separated classes, some of the advantages of thorough collegiate training to the candidates in preparations for our ministry, the Conference undergraduates, the local ministry, and as many of the traveling preachers as care to more fully qualify themselves for their work.

No reason exists why a system that has largely helped men in literary, scientific, mechanical and commercial life, should not prove of great value in theological training, and it is to be hoped our undergraduates will at once put themselves in communication with Rev. J. L. Cunningham, Secretary of the School at Vanderbilt University.

We greet with pleasure and admiration upon the tripod of the Christian Advocate at Nashville, Tenn., Dr. G. B. Winton and his assistant, Rev. S. M. Godbey, and remark favorably upon the changes they have made in departments represented in the columns of the paper. This is an age of newspapers. They issue from every village and hamlet, they go to every threshold in the land. They contain all kinds of information. They institute, project, and direct all kinds of social force. A metropolitan daily is not only voluminous and cheap, but goes in editions of hundreds of thousands, like the ocean waves, from shore to shore, like the waves of darkness from continent to continent. It represents every grade of literary ability from that of the crude, boyish reporter to the astute University Specialist, and the most graceful of our peripatetic correspondents. All occasions, conventions and topics, all events, theories and results, appertaining to every sphere in life, and affecting every quality of character, fall in line under discussion. The newspaper probably as no other force, contributes to popular education and character building. But how very few have before them the ideal of Christian character, while the great multitude grovel along the line of mere money making. And yet, in Christian families—and much more in those not Christian, what fatal preponderance is given to the secular press. Magazines of beautiful mechanical dress, but of chaffy contents, and papers filled with telegraphic gossip off-hand, street-corner philosophy and politics, have undisputed sway in many, even Methodist homes. The result is apparent in toning down the piety of our people, relaxing their interest in church services and enterprises and undermining their faith, in the placid moral muscles, and the desultory, inconstant, self-opinionated, irreverent tendencies of our young people. Some thing must be done and done at once.

Our Nashville Advocate is one of the institutions of our Church—our wisest and best men have inaugurated and continued it as one of our choicest and best moral forces. Its editor has been selected by our General Conference, for his capacity, his doctrinal integrity, his denominational loyalty, his taste and tact, his consecration and intelligent zeal. The paper is the official representative of the church's theology, policy and administration, as no other of our Church papers is. It is not saying too much, when we affirm, that no itinerant preacher is faithful to his people, or loyal to his Church, or true to his vows or self-interest who is indifferent to its circulation, or sees without alarm and toil, undenominational papers, or those of sister churches, or the secular press crowd out our central organ. Its mechanical execution commends it everywhere, its literary quality rivals the best issues of the continent, its secular news is an admirable digest of all it is convenient or safe for our people to read. It is spiritual along high levels and no reasonable excuse can exclude it from the great majority of our families in city and country.

We would respectfully call attention in this connection to the Central Methodist, published in our own State, and addressing itself to phases of our culture and necessities of our church life, considered by no other paper. We need an organ more specific and local than any General Conference enterprise can afford to be. We have our Conference institutions to maintain and enterprises of reform and evangelization to advance. Our quarterly conferences must be announced and revivals reported, our congregational successes acknowledged and our young writers encouraged. Our people need these stimuli, together with that which proceeds from personal knowledge of the preachers and lay workers, of the events and occasions discussed to secure a patronage for the paper. We have such a paper, under editorial management of an intelligent and capable layman long connected with our Kentucky Wesleyan College, and under business management of a popular and successful layman of the Louisville Conference, but it needs the hearty and united support of both Conferences to make it a success. Though published at the nominal price of one dollar per annum, it must come in competition with private and undenominational enterprises with ample financial backing, large experience and great mail lists, not to speak of the obtrusive political and commercial papers that, in a feeble way, furnish some sort of moral pabulum. Many of our people have no literary qualifications, many have no hunger for them, many have no denominational loyalty or interest, and at present, do not and will not take a religious paper. These are sad features, but not discouraging. They indicate for us a concentration of our forces and an intensification of our purposes.

This paper, we have every assurance, will exclude discussions that produce discord, or indulge in hurtful personalities, which only serve to confuse our people, dishearten their efforts, alienate their affections before the world.

We offer you the following resolutions, viz.:

RESOLVED, That we heartily endorse and commend to our people, the books and periodicals of our own Publishing House at Nashville, and urge our preachers and people to use them in preference to others.

RESOLVED, That we specially commend the Nashville Christian Advocate as a necessity for the indoctrination of our people in the faith, the polity and administration of our church and that we will spare no efforts to give it a wide circulation among our people.

RESOLVED, That we will adopt the Central Methodist as the organ of our Conference, and will do our utmost to introduce it into all of our families.

O. J. CHANDLER, Chairman.

CHAS. F. EVANS, Secretary.

REPORT ON ORPHANS HOME.

The Orphans' Home Committee respectfully submit the following report:

From the President's annual report, we learn that there are now thirty children in the Home (12 girls and 18 boys). Seven girls and three boys have been received, and seven girls and four boys have been placed in homes during the year.

There are now a number of applications for admission pending.

The health of the children is good. The children have the advantages of home training, schooling, and church and Sunday-school privileges. The President's report shows: Assets, $75,241.19, liabilities, nothing.

We endorse the movement now on foot to increase the endowment to $100,000. Our agent, Brother E. S. Boswell, having just revised the list of committees in the churches throughout the bounds of the Conference, we urge the pastors to look after these committees, and to keep the work and needs of the Home before our people. We recommend that all our Sunday-schools give the 5th Sunday's collection to the Home. We recommend that there be a column in our minutes, in which the pastors can separately report what has been collected in the respective charges for the Home. We recommend that the Conference ratify the re-appointment of Bro. E. S. Boswell as agent, and Mrs. Florence M. Picard as Matron of our Home.

J. W. HARRIS, Chairman.

GEO. W. BOSWELL, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance beg leave to make the following report:

In view of the fact that there is much desecration of the Sabbath throughout our country, we would respectfully suggest to our people the great impropriety of indulging in such things as visiting on the Sabbath, buying and selling, reading the Sunday papers, and doing all kinds of unnecessary work. We especially condemn all Sunday excursions, both by boats and trains, whether they be for mere pleasure, or to such places as conferences, camp-meetings, associations, and others of like order; and we call upon all people to refrain from patronizing them. We further make mention of the fact that there is much riding on the regular boats and trains on the Sabbath day by the people in our Conference territory, which custom we condemn, and we urge our people to refrain from it.

Respectfully,

D. P. WARE, Chairman.

T. B. COOK, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your committee on District Conference Records report as follows:

We have had all the records before us and find the following errors: In the record of the Covington District, the term "elected to deacon's orders" is used twice instead of "recommended." In the record of the Danville District, Rev. E. H. Pearce is reported from Danville as a Local Elder instead of a supernumerary. The record of the London District is in a paper tablet, written with a lead pencil. The Lexington, Maysville and Shelbyville records we find correct.

Respectfully,

J. M. MATTHEWS, Chairman.

B. F. COSBY, Secretary.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Among the Annual Benevolent offerings of our churches, that for the work of the American Bible Society should have the most faithful regard. Indifference to its provision is to dishonor the needs of God's Kingdom on earth. Justly it has been said, "that where churches, colleges and schools show the fruit of years of toil, the work of the Bible Society is the plow-share of them all."

For the present year in the Annual Report of the American Bible Society from its office in New York, cheering news comes. It is in the statement that "the past year has been one of quiet progress, and it is a pleasure to record the evidences of a general growth in the interest and support of the Christian public. This is shown in the receipts of the year which exhibit some increase in every department."

It is a most notable fact that official and comparative exhibits of book sales in the United States the past year show the Bible to be the leader of them all. In the foreign field, fresh accent is given to the noble utilities of the American Bible Society in one marked instance in our new national possessions in the Philippines. Fifty thousand volumes from its presses have not been able to meet the demand for its circulation among the religiously benighted and down-trodden of the new field and open door of the new national domain.

Your committee, in conclusion, would beg to re-emphasize to our ministers and people three things as the expression of this body: First, that the annual offering for the Bible Cause be made, if possible, in the first quarter of the church year, in view of the urgent need of means to advance the pressing calls for its great work. Second, that our Sunday-school scholars be permitted to make special offering on a day especially designated, that in its observance they may be early awakened and instructed to the high claims of this divine benevolence. Third, that in the careful presentation of the Bible cause, whether to the church, congregation or church school, we will endeavor to foster that greatest and mightiest and most lasting of all religious revivals, the personal study of the Word of God itself in individual life, in the home and the school, seeing we may ever "set our hearts unto the words it testifies unto us, for it is not a vain thing for us; it is our life."

RESOLVED, That $1,000.00 be assessed on Kentucky Conference for the American Bible Society, as last year.

E. H. PEARCE, Chairman.

T. PARK GARDNER, Secretary.

REPORT OF TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

The effect of intoxicating liquor as a beverage is so out of harmony with the logic of life; the traffic in the same so repugnant to moral sense and so utterly antagonistic to all that is precious in life, that the only proper attitude toward the drink curse for all Christians, is that of relentless hostility. The General Conference held in St. Louis in 1890 said of the traffic: "It cannot be placed so high by license that the prayers of God's people, for its suppression, will not rise above it, nor so low, though it make its bed in hell, that the shrieks of the souls lost through its agency will not descend beneath it." Being in harmony with this expression of our highest tribunal, therefore be it

RESOLVED, 1st. This Conference should be the patron and aider of all activities that point clearly to the overthrow of license, high or low, and should keep pace with the most aggressive efforts to bring about total abstinence as the individual rule of life, and prohibition as the law of civil government.

RESOLVED, 2d. We hail with pleasure the stringent enforcement bills passed by the last General Assembly for the support of precinct local option laws, which simplify the form of indictments; subject the property of offenders and their landlords to sale for payment of fines; constitute the place of delivery the place of the illegal sale of liquors; forbid the transportation of packages of liquor into local-option territory, and make the possession of United States internal revenue license prima facie evidence of guilt.

RESOLVED, 3d. We recognize the efficiency of the State Local Option Committee and our field Secretary, Rev. G. W. Young, in securing the passage of these bills and are grateful to the legislators who voted for these enforcement laws.

RESOLVED, 4th. We hereby pledge ourselves in so far as God gives us to see the light, by influence, by voice and in the strongest sense of citizenship by vote, to help place in positions of public trust, men who are out of harmony with saloon politics and in harmony with the purpose to bring about the entire prohibition of the importation, manufacture, and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage. We recommend that Rev. G. W. Young be elected delegate to the National Anti-Saloon Convention to meet in Washington, D. C., Dec. 9 to 11, 1902.

We also recommend the following names as members of the State Local Option Committee for this Conference: John R. Deering, T. W. Watts, L. E. Mann, B. J. Durham, R. T. Marshall and T. J. Jenkins.

GEO. W. BAIN, Chairman.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. BALL, Treasurer.

W. F. Taylor reported that the Treasurer had given bond in amount of $2,000.00, which bond is duly recorded in the city of Maysville, Ky.

W. W. Ball announced a bequest by Mrs. Frankie Kelly, whose will contains the following: "I will to the Kentucky branch of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, $3,000.00 to be controlled by the Kentucky Conference, to be invested by it in good securities, the proceeds of which is to be used for the support of superannuated preachers and their widows, the principal to be kept intact forever for said purpose."

It was moved that this money be collected by the Legal Conference and turned over to the Preacher's Aid Society for investment.

A substitute was offered by T. W. Barker that the Treasurer of the Legal Conference be instructed to collect the Mrs. Frankie Kelly bequest and to invest the same in accordance with the provisions of her will. The substitute was adopted.

On motion the presiding bishop and the secretary of the Conference were requested to certify to the Executor of Mrs. Kelly's will that W. W. Ball was duly authorized to collect said bequest.

The following officers were elected: President, W. F. Taylor; Secretary, W. E. Arnold; Treasurer, W. W. Ball. Investing Committee, W. W. Ball, W. F. Taylor and Julius Edwin Wright.

Rev. George B. Poage.

Rev. George B. Poage was born in Greenup county, Kentucky, January 18, 1823, and died in Brooksville, Bracken county, Kentucky, April 12, 1902, aged seventy-nine years, two months and twenty-four days. He was educated at Marietta, Ohio. He joined the Kentucky Conference in 1843, and was assistant preacher to Rev. A. H. Redford on the Brooksville and Augusta charge. He preached there for one year, and appointed to Hill-street church Lexington, as assistant to M. M. Hinkle. From Lexington he was transferred to the Arkansas Conference, and from this Conference to the West Virginia Conference, and was one of the Presiding Elders of the Conference. He was transferred to the Kentucky Conference in 1863, and took supernumerary relation and moved to Brooksville, Bracken county, where he lived and sustained this relation until his death, a period of nearly forty years. Bro. Poage was a good preacher, a good citizen, a good neighbor, an affectionate husband, and a loving father. He leaves a wife and four sons and one daughter. Sister Poage is one of the sweetest-spirited Christian ladies we have ever met. The children are all members of the church, and are loved and respected by all people. Bro. Poage was a great sufferer for eight or ten years before he died. Sister Poage and the children were so good to him, and Hall Poage, his nephew, whom he raised, and who had loved him as his own father, was so faithful and devoted to him. They spared no effort to make his last days pleasant for him. The children were perfectly devoted to their father. We were with them when the inevitable came. His death was a triumphant one. It was our privilege to visit Bro. Poage often during the last two years, and it was always a benediction to my soul. His faith in God was beautiful. He was so patient and submissive. When he was able his loving children brought him to church, and his very presence gave inspiration to the service. Everybody loved and respected Bro. Poage. Just before breath left him an old man, an inmate of the County Infirmary and a member of the Catholic church, came in to see him, and as he sat looking into his face as he was breathing his last, he turned to me with trembling voice and tear-wet eyes and said: "Bro. Poage is a good man. He was my friend." It was his request that no funeral be preached. Religious services were conducted at the church by Bro. Wightman, of Germantown, and the writer. He was an honored member of the fraternal order of F. & A. M., and was buried by that order, Bro. James W. Staton, P. G. M., officiating. We shall cherish his memory; he shall live in our hearts. Rev. George E. Rapp.

Rev. Geo. E. Rapp was born in Cincinnati, O., June 10, 1869, and departed this life at Georgetown, Ky., August 1, 1902, at 4:30 p. m., age, thirty-three years. He was converted at the age of sixteen, and called to the ministry. He immediately began to prepare himself for his lifework. At the age of twenty years he entered the Kentucky Wesleyan College. He received his A. B. degree in the college in the spring of 1894, when he entered the theological department of Vanderbilt University. He attended the university for three years and received his A. M. and B. D. degrees. He was admitted into the Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church, South, at Mt. Sterling in 1897, and was sent to East Maysville circuit. He traveled this circuit for two years. Many souls were converted and added to the church during the two years, also he built a beautiful church at Dover and a handsome parsonage at East Maysville. East Maysville was then made a station, and he served this station for one year. This, too, was a successful year.

He was sent to Georgetown from the Conference at Nicholasville in September, 1900. God blessed his labors and he was able to make the best report at Shelbyville last year that had been made from Georgetown for many years. He was returned to Georgetown from the Shelbyville Conference last year. On the 30th day of last October he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Ratliff Crockett, of Sharpsburg, Ky. It was the prettiest wedding we have ever attended. Brother and Sister Rapp were so well suited, both alike educated, religious, gentle and sweet spirited. They lived a happy, sweet life together for nine months in the parsonage at Georgetown. The good people of Georgetown of all denominations, and those who were not members of any church, loved him, and were so kind and good to him. I loved him so dearly. It was like preaching the funeral of my own brother in the flesh. Bro. Sims and Bro. Ware, of the Kentucky Conference, and Bros. J. K. Nunnelley and T. J. Stephenson, of the Baptist church of Georgetown, assisted in the funeral service. His life was short, but full of honors. Christ was his life; Christ was magnified not in his body only, in his labors and suffering, but in his spirit. The presence of Christ filled his whole conscious existence. or its hardships, was as nothing in comparison with this inner life of the Spirit. Christ walked with him; the sacred presence influenced his whole conscious life, keeping up a current of pure, high, heavenly thought within his heart. Death was to him but the weighing anchor, the taking down of his tent, the last stage in his journey to the heavenly country. The blessedness awaiting God's children there is beyond the power of language to express; it needs the language of angels. Death was no strange thing to him; he lived in habitual preparation for it. In his last audible prayer he said, "Thy will be done." This holy resignation, this calm and blessed hope, implies a life of fellowship with Christ. There never was a man whose intellectual life was more completely wrapped up in his Savior; his plans, his anxieties, his hopes centered in Him; every thought was brought into subjection to Him. He was a man of God. He lived right and died in the triumph of a living faith, and went home to heaven. We buried his body in the beautiful cemetery at Sharpsburg, Bath county. We commend Sister Rapp, the aged father and mother, the brothers and sisters, and all whom he loved to God, who will comfort and console you and sanctify this affliction to the good of your immortal interest and principal.

Mrs. D. D. Duty.

Mrs. Lodema B. Duty, nee Smith, died in Mt. Sterling, Ky., May 16, 1902, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Wood.

Mrs. Duty was born at Marathon, Courtlandt county, New York, April 27, 1836. She came to Kentucky when a young woman and taught in Sharpsburg Academy, and while residing at this place she met and married the late Rev. D. D. Duty on September 20, 1859, with whom she lived in happy union until he was called to the reward of the righteous on August 14, 1884.

Six children were born to them, one dying in infancy. Those surviving are Mrs. James H. Wood, Miss Mary Duty, Bruce and William Duty, of Mt. Sterling, and Charles H. Duty, of Covington. The funeral services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Dr. Robert Hiner, at the Methodist church, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and the remains were interred in Machpelah cemetery.

Mrs. Duty united with the Methodist church at an early age, and through all the years that followed she lived a consistent life. The most definite data that has been retained concerning her conversion is found in a letter written by a friend, under date of April 30, 1861, as follows: "Let me here congratulate you, Sister Lodema, on your happy experience. I little thought when I found you so faithful in the discharge of Christian duty that the precious promises of Christ were as yet unclaimed by you, but now you realize their beauty. I tender you my warmest sympathies in this new joy."

This experience, so happily mentioned in the foregoing, was referred to several times in conversation with the writer. It was a vital spark that increased in luster with the years of her earthly pilgrimage. It was always a cherished memory and a present joy and support under the trials of life. Hers was a beautiful life. Her loyalty to the Master and to all that was noble and good in life gave her a calm and peace which come only to those who are truly faithful in the duties which are given them to perform.

Through days of deepest bereavements and trials, as well as through days of gladness and blessings, she retained her faith in the Father, and in His power and willingness to care for her.

Next in her affections were her children, as was proved by her devotion to them to the very last, when they gathered around her to hear the last words of love and blessing from one who had endeavored to direct their steps from infancy in the right path.

The memory of her life will rest upon them like a benediction, ever drawing them onward and upward, to meet her in the bright beyond, when their work, like hers, has been faithfully performed.

Mrs. B. F. Sedwick.

Minerva J. Floyd was born in Garrard county, Ky., April 22, 1819. She was the daughter of Thomas and Sarah Floyd. On December the 30th, 1845, she was married to Mr. Burdett, who died along in the fifties. In 1861 she was married to Mr. Edward Garnett, (familiarily known as "Uncle Ned") who lived near Oddville, Harrison county, Ky., and was a staunch member of the church at Oddville. She was a faithful wife, and mother to his children. He died in 1881. In 1889 she married Bro. B. F. Sedwick, who died in 1895. She always enjoyed good health and was strong and robust until Nov. 1897, when she met with an accident which left her a cripple the rest of her life, never walking without crutches, and aided by others. She was cared for by her niece, Mrs. Anderson, until the death of Mrs. Anderson, and then by Mrs. A. E. Colegrove, until her death, which occurred Oct. 18, 1901. The funeral services were held at the M. E. Church, South, by her pastor, Rev. F. K. Struve. She was an exceptional character. Often she would sit upon her wheel chair, singing the old songs of Zion. She was a great sufferer toward the last, but died trusting in her Savior.

Opened September 3rd, 1902, with the largest attendance of both day and boarding pupils that it has had for many years. The

for many years one of the strong and popular features of the college, is so large that we have been compelled to employ an additional teacher in this department, and now our four music teachers have ALL their teaching hours occupied.

The buildings thoroughly overhauled inside and outside.

The rooms newly furnished.

Seven new pianos purchased.

All the rooms on the first floor, including chapel and dining-room, lighted with the celebrated "Benedict" Acetylene Gas Lights.

An increase of patronage each year. These are some of the evidences of PROGRESS at the M. F. C.

To the hearty sympathy and co-operation of the preachers of the Kentucky Conference we attribute much of our success, and now we assure you we stand ready to aid you in the education of your daughters.

Let PREACHERS and FRIENDS of Christian education continue to speak in behalf of the

MILLERSBURG FEMALE COLLEGE,

Our aim is to do thorough work in all the college courses; to furnish a safe and pleasant college home for pupils, and to develop strong Christian character.

THE NEW DISCIPLINE

PRICE 30 CENTS.

The Discipline, as amended by the General Conference of 1902, is now ready for distribution. All of our pastors must have it; all of our homes should have it.

Our "Yearbook" for 1902

Has been revised to show the new Boards raised by the General Conference at its last session, and all changes in the Standing Boards and Committees heretofore existing. The statistics of the Church have been corrected to date. A brief chapter by Dr. Tigert on the outlook of the Church prefaces these tables. It is a most convenient book of reference for parsonages and all intelligent Methodist homes.
